

What have we to offer.

Recently I read an article in a Sunday School paper, on the life of Fanny J. Crosby, well known hymn writer. It cited some of the more than seven thousand hymns she wrote, such as, "All the way my Saviour leads me" "Pass me that old gentle Saviour" "Jesus keep me near the cross" "I am thine O Lord" "Rescue the perishing" "Safe in the arms of Jesus" ^{ask why her songs} and spoke of her hymns as being weak and sentimental and saved if at all by their tunes. Those of us who have converted on Bible lines, found a response in these old hymns. They expressed what we felt in our heart, and cannot understand anyone who has the love of God shed abroad in their heart not feeling the Same way: we were brought up by Christian parents and

This was all that was written on this story. The next story Started on the following page.